ENG-548 CALENDAR

week 1

Three assigned readings before the first class:

- "Records and their imaginaries: Imagining the impossible, making possible the imagined." Gilliland, Anne J. & Caswell, Michelle. (2016).
- "Introduction: This Land," An Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States (IPHUS) by Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz [Textbook]
- "Introduction: "Killed helping workers to organize": Reenvisioning American history," An African American and Latinx History of the United States (AALHUS) by Paul Ortiz [Textbook]

Assignments before the next class:

- Reading Response
- Assignment # 1: A brief semester topic proposal

Major assignment due dates:

- 1st major assignment/low stakes: Before Aug 27 class
- 2nd major assignment: Before Oct 8 class
- Final major assignment: Dec 10, 11:59 pm

week 2

Assigned Materials

- Ch 1: The Haitian Revolution and the Birth of Emancipatory Internationalism, 17705 to 18205 [AALHUS]
- Ch 2: The Mexican War of Independence and US History: Anti-Imperialism As a Way Of Life, 18205 TO 18505 [AALHUS]
- "Introduction: community archives: assimilation, integration, or resistance?" in Urgent Archive: Enacting Liberatory Memory Work (2023) by Michelle Caswell
- "Reciprocal Archival Imaginaries: The Shifting Boundaries of "Community" in Community Archives," by Gracen Brilmyer, Joyce Gabiola, Jimmy Zavala, and Michelle Caswell (2019)

Assignments before the next class:

- Reading Response
- List two anti oppressive archival/storytelling projects with brief annotations for each

*Note: Other reading materials will be provided in a PDF format or with a hyperlink on Canvas.

*Note: The calendar is subject to change. So, please make sure you check this calendar and Canvas every week.

week 3

Assigned Materials

- Ch 1: “Follow the Corn” in IPHUS
- Ch 2: “Culture of Conquest” in IPHUS
- Ch 3: “Cult of the Covenant” in IPHUS
- INTRODUCTION: “The Afterlives of Indigenous Archives” Ivy Schweitzer in The Afterlives of Indigenous Archives
- "The Role of Indigenous Communities in Building Digital Archives" by Timothy B. Powell in Afterlives of Indigenous Archives

Assignments before the next class:

- List two anti oppressive archival/storytelling projects with brief annotations for each

week 4

Because of the archive visit at the library on Sept 10, no reading response is due before the class. The readings for the Sept 10 class have been moved to the following week.

Assignments before the next class:

- Reading Response
- List two anti oppressive archival/storytelling projects with brief annotations for each

Sept 10 class: Archival Visit Agenda

WSU Queer Archives at Manuscripts, Archives, and Special Collections (MASC)

Visit Agenda:

- Intro to Higher Ground Exhibit
- Intro to Archives Research
- Background on WSU Queer Archives
- Unstructured Research Time
- Closing Discussion

Research Questions:

- How is community reflected or absent in the archive?
- How does multimodality function in this archive?
- What are the gaps and limitations of this archive and of multimodality?

Research Collections & Materials (Online Research Guide)

- Print culture | Zines, comics and literature: Lynn R. Hansen Underground Comics Collection; Steve Willis Collection Comix and Small Press Collection; Paul Brian's Comics Collection; Faith Beemer Cooke Papers; Caxton Printers, Ltd. Records, 1928-1982; LGBTQ+ Center Zine Collection (unofficial); Palouse Gay Baseball (unofficial)

- Print culture | Letters, gov. and legal documents: Jay Inslee Congressional Papers, 1992-1994; Thomas S. Foley Congressional Papers; Washington State University Office of the President: W. Glenn Terrell Records, 1953-1983

- Print culture | Newspapers and community groups: Dr. Brian Stack's LGBTQ timeline of Daily Evergreen newspapers; Citizens for a Diverse Campus Collection; ASWSU Activities Center Office Files, 1970-1982 (Gay Palouse News); National Organization for Women, 1982-1999

- Visual culture | Negatives, photograph prints: Washington State University Office of Student Media Evergreen and Chinook Photographs; Prints from previous Queering the Archive events (unofficial)

- Visual culture | Short Films: WSU Women's Resource Center Videotapes: A Queer Film & My Life as a Boy (1999)

week 5

Assigned Materials

- Ch 3: "To Break the Fetters of Slaves All Over the World": The Internationalization of the Civil War, 18505 to 1865 54 [AALHUS]
- Ch 4: Global Visions of Reconstruction: The Cuban Solidarity Movement, 18605 to 18905 [AALHUS]
- "Decolonizing the Imperialist Archive: Translating Cherokee Manuscripts" by Ellen Cushman in Afterlives of Indigenous Archives
- “Toward a Decolonial Digital and Visual American Indian Rhetorics Pedagogy” by Angela Haas
- "Decolonial Skillshares: Indigenous Rhetorics as Radical Practice," by Qwo-Li Driskill

No Assignments before the next class:

week 6

Assigned Materials

- Ch 4: “Bloody Footprints” in IPHUS
- Ch 5: “The Birth of a Nation” in IPHUS
- Ch 6: “The Last of the Mohicans and Andrew Jackson's White Republic” in IPHUS
- “A matter of time: Archival temporalities” in Urgent Archive: Enacting Liberatory Memory Work (2023) by Michelle Caswell
- “Querying Queer African Archives: Methods and Movements,” by Thérèse Migraine-George and Ashley Currier

Assignments before the next class:

- 2nd Major Assignment so far | Due Date Sept 29 | Peer Review on Oct 1

week 7

Assigned Materials

- CH 5: “Waging War on the Government of American Banks in the Global South, 1890s to 1920s” [AALHUS]
- CH 6: “Forgotten Workers of America: Racial Capitalism And The War On The Working Class, 1890s TO 1940s” [AALHUS]
- “Writing the Digital Codex: Non/Alphabetic, De/Colonial, Network/ed” by Damián Baca in Afterlives of Indigenous Archives
- “The Sankofa Principle: From the Drum to the Digital” by Abdul Alkalimat in The Digital Black Atlantic (2021)
- "From the embers of the Nakba: How reimagining Palestinian collective memory is the key to return," by Ramona Wadi

Assignments before the next class:

- Reading Response
- Assignment # 2

week 8

Assigned Materials

- Ch 7: “Sea to Shining Sea” in IPHUS
- Ch 8: “"Indian Country"” in IPHUS
- Ch 9: “US Triumphalism and Peacetime Colonialism” in IPHUS
- “Ch 3: From representation to activation” in Urgent Archive by Michelle Caswell
- "The Artists Preserving Palestinian Collective Memory," by by Dalia Al-Dujaili/

Assignments before the next class:

- Reading Response

week 9

Assigned Materials

- “Emancipatory Internationalism us. the American Century, 1945 to 19605” [AALHUS]
- “El Gran Paro Estadounidense: The Rebirth of the American Working CLass, 1970s To The Present” [AALHUS]
- “Epilogue: A New Origin Narrative of American History” [AALHUS]
- “Ch 4: Imagining liberatory memory work” in Urgent Archive by Michelle Caswell
- “Conclusion: Liberation now!” in Urgent Archive by Michelle Caswell

Assignments before the next class:

- Reading Response

week 10

Assigned Materials

- Ch 10: “Ghost Dance Prophecy: A Nation Is Coming” in IPHUS
- Ch 11: “The Doctrine of Discovery” in IPHUS
- “CONCLUSION: The Future of the United States” in IPHUS
- “The algebra of infinite justice,” Arundhati Roy (2002)
- Arundhati Roy's Come September Speech & Discussion Afterwards with Howard Zinn (2002)

Assignments before the next class:

- Reading Response

week 11

Assigned Materials

- "What Passes for Human? Undermining the Universal Subject in Digital Humanities Praxis" by Roopika Risam
- "The “Nature” of Ethics while (Digitally) Archiving the Other," by Bibhushana Poudyal
- "Toward a Queer Digital Humanities," by Bonnie Ruberg, Jason Boyd, and James Howe
- "Digital Repatriation as a Decolonizing Practice in the Archaeological Archive," by Krystiana L. Krupa & Kelsey T. Grimm
- “Stop This Slaughter n Palestine,” (2024) Arundhati Roy

Assignments before the next class:

- Reading Response

week 12

Assigned Materials

- "What's the Use of Feminist and Queer Theory?: On Messy Methods, Archives, and Objects" by Hemangini Gupta et.al.
- "Stains and Remains: Liveliness, Materiality, and the Archival Lives of Queer Bodies" by Marika Cifor
- "A Queer/ed Archival Methodology: Archival Bodies as Nomadic Subjects" by Jamie Ann Lee
- "Performing the Archival Body: Inciting Queered Feminist (Dis)locational Rhetorics Through Place-Based Pedagogies" by Elizabeth Bentley and Jamie A. Lee

Assignments before the next class:

- Reading Response

week 13

Assigned Materials

Assignments before the next class:

- Reading Response

Class details for the remaining weeks will be shared as we move further into the semester. They will be designed around our collective interests and the stage we're at in our work, and may be tailored to support your individual projects.